Story of Origin from My Heart

As of 5/18/2022

Once upon a time in a faraway land called Wisconsin, a baby girl was born in midst of a blustery blizzard. Her parents named their child Kathleen. That was me, and this is my story.

Childhood on family farms, constant chores
Caring for animals, crops, and catastrophes
Squabbling parents, money short
Receiving valedictorian scholarship
Being family's first college grad.
"Was that your escape?"

Public schools teaching
Wiggly first-graders and sassy teens
Studying for Ph.D. same time
Defending my thesis
Opening new doors with that golden key
"Thought you loved being a schoolteacher?"

Hello university faculty status
Diving into academic teaching
Fast-tracking tenue
Changing abruptly, pivoting
Leaving ivory-tower colleagues.
"How could you go?"

New challenges at nonprofits
Urging folks to open hearts and wallets
Raising money for charities
Learning new skills
Making a difference.
What was the game-changer?

Rehl Financial Advisors
Flourishing 18-year business as CFP®
Helping folks with money
Focusing on surviving spouses after husband's death
Publishing "Moving Forward on Your Own:
A Financial Guidebook for Widows"
"What came next?"

Encore career launched
Selling RFA business
Speaking, writing
Researching, empowering widows
Crisscrossing country for 300 presentations.
"Then you retired?"

Now "ReFired"—NOT vintage retirement
Centering on five "F" words:
Family, Fun, Focused-purpose,
Friends, and Fitness (body, mind, spirit, & money)
Creating as legacy writer and nonprofit ambassador.
Fantastic Chapter!

ABOUT KATHLEEN M. REHL, PH.D., CFP®, CeFT® Emeritus

Kathleen wrote the multi-award-winning book, Moving Forward on Your Own: A Financial Guidebook for Widows, with about 80,000 copies in circulation today. She owned Rehl Financial Advisors for 18 years before retiring to a six-year encore career empowering widows through her research, writing, and speaking across the country. Now happily “reFired” at age 75, Kathleen pens pieces about widows and money, along with longevity and end-of-life planning. However, she focuses on legacy writing—stories, poems, and letters. Kathleen assists several nonprofits with their endowment programs. Her work has been featured in over 180 articles published by the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, Kiplinger’s, CNBC, USA Today, and many others. Her website is https://KathleenRehl.com.
